

Monica Sah (Partner, Clifford Chance)

Monica Sah is a partner at Clifford Chance, specialising in financial markets and Fintech law and regulation and is Global Co-Head of Clifford Chance's Financial Regulation Practice. Monica advises global financial institutions (asset managers and sell side), disruptor blockchain providers and crypto services providers and issuers on a full range of legal and regulatory issues, including regulatory reform and implementation (e.g. ALMD5, SRD2, MiFID2/R), financial product structuring, custody issues, expanding and maintaining a multi-product and jurisdictional platform, initial margin product development, governance and financial institution and Fintech M&A. In Chambers UK and Legal 500 UK, Monica is ranked as a leading individual for Financial Services: Non-Contentious/ Regulatory Practice. Monica is also 'Highly Regarded' in IFLR1000 for Financial Services Regulatory and is rated as a leading individual in Clifford Chance's Tier 1 Fintech Practice in Legal 500 UK and is individually ranked in Chambers for FinTech Legal: Blockchain & Cryptocurrencies. Monica is recognised as one of the leading female lawyers in the world in IFLR1000 Women Leaders. She is also recognised in Who's Who Legal as a 'Thought Leader – GBRR' and as a 'Global Leader, Banking – Regulatory', as well as being recognised as one of the world's leading Regulatory practitioners in their Banking Report.