

Marek Mora

First Deputy Minister

Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports of the Czech Republic

Mr Marek Mora graduated from the University of Economics, Prague. He received a grant from Konrad Adenauer Foundation to continue his studies in a post graduate course “European Economy” at the European Institute in Saarbrücken where he was awarded a Masters degree.

In his previous career he worked at the Bundeswehr University in Hamburg and the University of Leipzig and was external advisor to Minister of Trade and Industry. Since 2003 he worked as economist at the Directorate General for Economic and Financial Affairs of the European Commission.