

Outline for a JVI/OeNB/BMF-Course

Green Finance: how climate change affects the financial system and how financial markets can support the transition towards a climate-friendly economy

Vienna, Austria June 26 – 30, 2023

Programme

June 26: How climate change affects the economy

9:00	Administrative Briefing
9:30	Opening Remarks
9:45	Introduction of course and participants
10:30	Coffee break
11:00	Introduction to climate economics
12:30	Group Photo and Lunch break
14:30	Climate change and policy uncertainty
16:00	End of day 1

June 27: Green finance policy instruments

9:00	Taxonomy & financing the transition
10:00	Coffee break
10:15	Effects of climate change on monetary policy
11:15	Coffee break
11:30	Climate-related financial regulation
12:30	Lunch break
14:00	Presentation of climate-related policies 1	Participants
16:00	End of day 2
18:30	Dinner at Glacisbeisl

June 28: Climate change and monetary policy

9:00	Climate indicators and sustainability data
10:00	Coffee break
10:15	Greening central bank portfolios
11:15	Coffee break
11:30	How monetary policy affects climate change
12:30	Lunch break
14:00	Presentation of climate-related policies 2	Participants
16:00	End of day 3

Outline for a JVI/OeNB/BMF-Course

June 29: The effects of climate change for financial markets

9:00	EU regulation, disclosure and green bonds
10:00	Coffee break
10:15	Climate stress testing banks
11:15	Coffee break
11:30	Impacts of carbon pricing on financial markets
12:30	Lunch break
14:00	Climate-related macroprudential policies
16:00	End of day 4

June 30: panel discussion

9:30	Panel discussion
11:00	Coffee break
11:15	Course Evaluation
11:35	Graduation ceremony
12:15	End of course	