

Papuna Papuashvili (Senior Lawyer, National Bank of Georgia)

As a Senior Lawyer at the National Bank of Georgia, Papuna Papuashvili works in the legal department. Main focus areas and responsibilities include legal and advisory assistance in the projects and processes of the Central Bank Digital Currency, Virtual Assets Service Providers registration and regulation, consulting to the Financial Technology companies, and Open Banking. His work focuses on regulatory aspects of emerging technologies such as artificial intelligence, FinTech, blockchain technology, cryptocurrencies, and central bank digital currencies. Hence, he has been the lead lawyer at the National Bank of Georgia for the project of Central Bank Digital Currency (Digital GEL), licensing of the Digital Banks and Open Banking since 2019. He has a great interest and has done various research in Financial Technology law and regulatory framework developments.”