

Rok Žvelc (Legal Officer at DG FISMA, European Commission)

Rok Žvelc, LLM (Saarbrücken), started his career in 2006 at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Slovenia. He joined the European Commission in 2008, where he worked as a legal and policy officer on various files, including external relations of the EU, trade and environment and enforcement of EU environmental law. In 2016, he joined the Directorate-General for Financial Stability, Financial Services and Capital Markets Union (DG FISMA), where he was first in charge of free movement of capital and investment protection. Since 2020, he has been working in the Digital Finance Unit on the legal frameworks for crypto-assets and digital euro.